

The Quilt Lounge & Knittery in Deer Park is ecstatic to announce they're hosting a Harry Potter Book Discussion Group on Friday, July 6 from 6-8 p.m. The address is 110 W. Crawford, Deer Park, WA. Your contact is Susan Cooper, 509-276-3030. Can you place this event in your Calendar for the next couple weeks?

Sue Pace is the host for the Auntie's discussion groups as well as this one in Deer Park. We hope all you fanatical fans show up!

There have always been questions and if you are like the rest of us, you love to debate with other people about what the answers to those questions are.

HOW DO YOU THINK THE HARRY POTTER SERIES WILL END? Come meet other Potter fans to share ideas, discuss plots, and make it known just how you think its all going to end. The Quilt Lounge & Knittery will be hosting a rousing discussion group in anticipation of Deathly Hallows for the world's greatest fans in the Deer Park, Elk, Springdale, Deer & Loon Lake area. Come show off your knowledge, share your theories, and generally get yourselves whipped into a frenzy of excitement as we PATIENTLY wait for July 21 and the final book in this series. After a Sorting Quiz, attendees will be 'sorted' into groups where the burning questions that have plagued all of us for two years will be offered up for discussion.

After the book comes out we will hold a Follow-Up Meeting August 9th from 6-8pm to see how well everyone did on their predictions, and to congratulate or console one another at the final outcome of the series. So gather your friends and family members, kids and adults alike, and join us for a lively discussion of all things Harry Potter. The events are FREE, costumes are encouraged, and a passion for Hogwarts essential!

Feel free to bring "themed treats" to this event! Children need to be accompanied by adults!

Thanks,
